

Larry Zogby
CEO, RDS Same Day Delivery
A Personal Bio

Who is Larry Zogby?

With more than 36 years of logistics experience as one of the New York City area's top-tier delivery services, proud and grateful to be a valued member of numerous logistics-related groups and associations, He's passionate about providing people with the opportunity they deserve for meaningful employment and create a culture of passion with his team.

When the COVID-19 pandemic hit, Zogby organized an effort called One Random Act of Kindness. This initiative has delivered more than 350,000 meals to front-line health workers, senior citizen shut-ins, and the needy and is still going strong.

Zogby is passionate about his company, his customers, his employees and his community. He wants to do everything he can—inside and outside of the logistics industry—to make his corner of the world a better place.

Larry Zogby's dedication has given his company a competitive edge—and a magical touch! Outside of work, Larry is an accomplished magician who has used his talents to bring laughter and joy to hospitals and charitable events. He shares his compassionate and energetic spirit with legendary magician and RDS client David Copperfield, who instills hope and comfort in the hearts of the disabled through his own Project Magic.

In addition to his volunteer efforts, Larry has performed for an impressive roster of notables, including Cher, actor Chazz Palminteri and the New York Mets. Larry is passionate about, entertaining, marketing, branding, the beach, and continued education. He enjoys sharing best practices around transportation, delivery, logistics in RDS' state-of-the-art facility! He also has been a guest speaker in podcasts to educate and inspire others.
